Professional Family Mediation from A to Z

APFM is proud to offer an action-packed conference bringing together experts and thought leaders in the field of professional family mediation! The 2017 Annual Conference will include workshops about building your skills as a mediator for both beginner and advanced mediators, skill building, practice building, elder mediation, and other topics. Educational offerings are designed to provide participants with the latest information to keep abreast of practice innovations and strategies for responding to challenges and opportunities affecting mediators around the country. Join the conference this year as a sponsor and/or exhibitor to interact with the 200+ mediation professionals who will come together to engage, innovate and take action!
